A Message from Pro-Mozart President

Dear Pro-Mozart Society Members and Friends,

I am pleased to report that our Patron's Circle Mozart's Birthday Dinner Party was a huge success and want to express a big thank you to Keith and Julie Barringer for hosting this special event in their beautiful home! We are excited to learn that Keith and Julie agreed to host this wonderful party again in January 2021. So if you want to be invited, please join or renew at the Patron level. As you know, the extra membership dollars we receive from our Patrons helps us to present the best artists and program possible. Thank you Patrons, as well as our faithful Executive Board!

Our next concert was on February 9th with great trumpet, piano and organ music by Mozart, J. S. Bach, Torelli and others played by Adam Hayes and Steven Wooddell. Their wonderful performance was thoroughly enjoyed.

Sadly, our Scholarship Competition, scheduled for March 15th was postponed due to current situation concerning corona virus pandemic. Giant "thank you" goes to Jenny Ham for tireless event preparation until a couple of days it was stopped! We all hope the Competition will be re-scheduled soon.

In current uncertain time we cannot be sure, that our next concert scheduled for April 19, 2020 at St. John UMC will happen – stay tuned.

Please make an effort to attend all our concerts, bring guests with you and do your part to encourage them to join Pro-Mozart Society. We really want and need help in the area of membership.

Yours for great music,

Jaromir (Jerry) Juchelka

Note: The Scholarship Competition, scheduled for March 15 and April 19 concert have been canceled. Both will appear in our 2020/21 Season program.

2019 Pro Mozart Scholarship Competition Winner

Dilon Bryan, born in Birmingham, United Kingdom, is the hornist with the Bulldog Brass Society, the premiere brass quintet at Hugh Hodgson School of Music. The group is coached by former New York Philharmonic principal trumpet, Phil Smith. Among other significant engagements with the brass quintet, Dilon spent this past summer at the Aspen Music Festival and School upon receipt of a generous fellowship to work closely with the American Brass Quintet. He is currently pursuing a Master of Music degree in Performance at the University of Georgia studying with Jean Martin-Williams and James Naigus. He completed his undergraduate work at Columbus State University studying with Anna Dodd & Natalie Higgins.
