A Message from Our President

Spring greetings!

I am excited and honored to be your president and really look forward to great things in the days ahead, especially our 2008-2009 Concert Series. As I mentioned at our last concert, Philippe Quint (world famous Russian-born violinist) will be performing for us November 9th as our first artist concert of the new season. Our "Gala Noel" should be special this year as we are looking into something new and exciting. This event will take place in December (usually early in the month). We then look forward to our Scholarship Competition in February of next year to be followed by Sandro Russo (internationally famous Italian-born concert pianist) who will play for us March 22, 2009. Christopher Sarzen (this year's scholarship winner) will play a concert for us in April and then we will enjoy another Members & Friends Concert next May. After our full and wonderful season, it will be "annual meeting and picnic" time again. Please make plans now to take advantage of all of the forthcoming activities just mentioned.

This is our last Amadeus until the fall, so please do not miss our Members & Friends Concert on the 4th or our final (re-scheduled) concert with Slavik Gabinsky and Heather Harz on June 1st (Holy Innocents Episcopal Church). These concerts will be outstanding and we look forward to seeing you at both of them!

Our Annual Meeting and Picnic is tentatively scheduled for June 8th and the location will be determined at our next board meeting. This casual, relaxing, and fun time is for all members and prospective members, so come and bring a friend with you!

Yours for great music,
Kevin Pritchett

Members enjoy refreshments after last month's performance.

It's Trivia Time!

Mozart, boy wonder, composer, musician. Yet he was buried in a pauper's grave. Test your knowledge and learn about our namesake and "noteworthy" musical legend.

1. Leopold Mozart, concertmaster of the court orchestra, came home from church with a friend and found his young son busily writing at his desk. He was at first stern with the boy who had used his ink and paper. Upon examination of the paper he was amazed to discover that five year old Wolfgang had created what form of music?

A) an opera B) a minuet C) a concerto D) a symphony

2. At what age was Mozart considered an accomplished pianist?

A) 11 B) 5 C) 7 D) 8

3. Leopold could see his son was more talented than he initially thought and decided to take his children on a tour to showcase their talents. Who was Wolfgang's sibling that was part of the musical protégée tour?

A) His younger brother, Franz B) His older sister, Nannerl C) His younger sister, Eloise D) His older brother, Jonathan

4. While on tour the Empress Maria Teresa asked them to play at the palace in Vienna. When they were introduced to court what did Mozart do that shocked those in attendance but caused the Empress to simply laugh in amusement?

A) Mozart began crying from stage fright B) Mozart climbed into her lap and gave her a kiss C) Mozart said the Empress was not very pretty D) Mozart curtsied instead of bowing

5. The tour proved quite successful, so after a period of rest Leopold took his children on another musical tour. In 1769 they arrived in Italy, What honor did the Pope confer upon Mozart?

A) Royal Composer B) Composer of the Year C) The Golden Spur D) The Silver Chalice

6. Upon returning home Wolfgang needed to begin the position that the Archbishop had appointed him. What was Mozart's first job?

A) Instructor to church musicians B) Musical Director of the City's Cathedral C) Concertmaster and Conductor of the Chapel Orchestra D) Choir Director

7. Mozart went on concert tours while on leave from his position. He traveled with his mother this time and when they stopped in Manheim he met a beautiful singer. What was this woman's name that captured his heart?

A) Elosia B) Aloysia C) Elise D) Alana

8. Mozart returned to his former position, but did not stay long. He returned to Vienna, only to find his true love had married another. In a rebound move Mozart turned to what woman to woo as his wife?

A) his former love's cousin B) his former love's younger sister C) his former love's best friend D) His former love's older sister

9. During an especially prolific period of his life Mozart composed an opera that the Viennese did not receive well but was embraced by audiences in Prague?

A) The Magic Flute B) The Marriage of Figaro C) Don Giovanni D) La Clemenzadi Tito

10. Mozart composed a requiem mass for a mysterious stranger for 100 ducats that proved to be the last thing he wrote before he died. How old was Mozart when he died?

A) 30 B) 45 C) 40 D) 35

I'm sure you won't have to look at the answers but just in case...
