Praise and adulation goes to Ingrid Siegert, Organist and Choir Director at Saint Martin in the Fields, for her assistance in making this concert fabulous!

Gracious thanks to Helen Ingebritsen and Jennifer Petritz for the lovely reception in honor of Christopher's concert.

Dr. George Lucktenberg is artist-in-residence and adjunct professor of music at Reinhardt College, Waleska, GA. His "mini-museum" of 14 clavichords, harpsichords, early and later pianos, and other stringed keyboards are housed at the college. He is performing a concert of Haydn's music using his replica of Mozart's piano on November 15 at 3:00 PM at Reinhardt College. We are all invited to come at no charge. For our concert on Sunday, he will be playing Mozart's Sonata in D Major, K381, Four Hands with William Ransom.

A Message from Our President

♪ I am thrilled with our last two concerts and the excellent performances by Sandro Russo and Christopher Sarzen. These gentlemen are truly outstanding pianists and among the best in our country today. Pro-Mozart thanks each of them and wishes continued success to both as they continue their musical careers.

♪♪ We also are encouraged with the increased and wonderful attendance at all of our concerts this season: Carlos Museum, Peachtree Christian Church, PianoWorks, and St. Martin in the Fields were all excellent venues and each had above average attendance. We appreciate these special hosts and all who have been part of our concerts this year.

♪♪♪ We especially thank Ingrid Siegert at St. Martin's for the use of their church and Gable Hall for Dr. Sarzen's concert and reception. The location is excellent and the welcome and hospitality we received were amazing! Special thanks also go to PianoWorks for furnishing the magnificent Schimmel Concert Grand for this concert.

♪♪♪♪ Don't miss our last concert of this season (which is one of our most popular), our Friends and Members Spring Fling which will be at Holy Innocents' Episcopal Church, 805 Mount Vernon Highway NW, Atlanta, 30328. We are in for a real treat as we enjoy each of the artists who will be performing: Mary Ann Hill-Meehan, Soprano, is one of our past Presidents and has entertained us many times with her brilliant singing; as well as Madonna Brownlee, Organist. Jason Hardy, Bass, and Dr. George Lucktenberg, Piano, will be appearing for the first time with our Society and we look forward to their performing. Dr. William Ransom, Pianist, is a long time friend of Pro-Mozart and will be returning to accompany each artist as well as playing a piano duet for four hands with Dr. Lucktenberg. Blake Johnson, Cellist, was one of our Scholarship Finalists, and he will once again inspire us with his excellent playing. As you can see, an exciting program is planned, so DON'T MISS IT!! See you May 3rd!

♪♪♪♪ Our annual meeting and picnic will be once again at the lake cottage of A.C. Myers on Lake Matthews in Snellville on June 7th. This is a casual and fun filled event with a delicious covered dish buffet which you provide. Hope that you will join us!
