MOZART QUOTES

- "If one has the talent it pushes for utterance and torments one; it will out; and then one is out with it without questioning. And, look you, there is nothing in this thing of learning out of books. Here, here and here (pointing to his ear, his head, his heart) is your school. If everything is right there, then take your pen and down with it; afterward ask the opinion of a man who knows his business."
- "I cannot write poetically; I am no poet. I cannot divide and subdivide my phrases so as to produce light and shade; I am no painter. I cannot even give expression to my sentiments and thoughts by gestures and pantomime; I am no dancer. But I can do it with tones; I am a musician . . . I wish you might live until there is nothing more to be said in music."

A Message from Our Co-Presidents

Dear Pro-Mozart Members and Friends,

Our 2015-2016 season has been very successful, and it is amazing that it will be history in less than a month. We, as Co-Presidents, sincerely THANK each and every one of you who have worked and served faithfully. Without you and your continued support, our wonderful Society would not, and could not exist . . . you are APPRECIATED.

We apologize that some of our publicized dates and times have not been accurate. This newsletter has definitive dates and times for our last two events of this season. Our Spring Fling (Members and Friends) Concert will be May 8th beginning at 3:00 PM at St. John United Methodist Church. A heartfelt

THANKS to George Butler and the congregation of St. John for hosting our concerts in their beautiful sanctuary! The date of our Annual Meeting and Picnic is Sunday, May 22nd, and it will begin at 3:00 PM, instead of 3:30 . . . PLEASE NOTE THE NEW start time. All of our events this season have begun at 3:00 PM, and our Annual Meeting and Picnic will do the same.

One of the most exciting events of each season is our Spring Fling Concert. Our artists are featured on the cover page of this AMADEUS, and you do not want to miss hearing these amazing musicians!

You also will enjoy hearing Noah Johnson, cellist, perform at our Annual Meeting and Picnic. Noah is a student at The University of Georgia, and is eager to perform for us.

Let's make our last two events really SPECIAL with all of our members attending. We look forward to seeing you at both events!

Yours for great music,

Kevin Pritchett and Trevin Dye

Annual Meeting and Picnic

Come rain or shine, our annual meeting and picnic will be held on Sunday, May 22 from 3:00 PM - 5:30 PM at the home of Robby and Elisabeth Hughes. This is the last time we will meet this season and we will elect officers for the 2016-2017 season. Dress is casual. We hope to see you there!
